NEW BUSINESS

Mr. Hales discussed the proposed law that will allow an exemption for those providing services to a relative in a relative's home. There was a concern by the House Business Committee with the services being limited to a relative's home. During the hearing two legislators also asked Mr. Hales about whether this should be limited to relatives and if it was possible for the law to be changed to allow someone to give up to five haircuts a year for compensation without being licensed and if the exemption should be extended beyond relatives. Mr. Hales said he would bring these issues to the Board. The Business Committee then voted to send the bill to the amending order to strike the words "in a relative's home."

Ms. Swope made a motion to have the Bureau resubmit the proposed law change striking the words "in a relative's home." It was seconded by Ms. Cleland. Motion carried.

Mr. Smith representing the Northwest Career Colleges Federation addressed the Board and mentioned that the legislature may consider a proposal that would reduce the number of hours.
